

Mexico

(Mexico) thanked the Special Procedures for their valuable reports and underscored the importance of the interactive dialogue that was being carried out, as it brought forth the relationship among all the different human rights and also with minority groups. Mexico thanked the valuable contribution made by the Special Rapporteur on the human rights of indigenous people for his recommendation made upon his visit to the country. Mexico was following up on his recommendations, and in that sense it had organized a number of seminars on the Declaration on the Rights of Indigenous Peoples. Mexico praised the report of the Special Rapporteur with reference to tools on the implementation of best practices. Mexico stressed the importance for the General Assembly to quickly adopt the Declaration on the Rights of Indigenous Peoples and the International Convention for the Protection of All Persons against Enforced Disappearances.
