6/... Informal meeting to discuss the most appropriate mechanisms to continue the work of the Working Group on Indigenous Populations

The Human Rights Council

Recalling that the Human Rights Council institution-building text of 18 June 2007 stated that the “Council will decide at its sixth session (First session of its Second Cycle) on the most appropriate mechanisms to continue the work of the Working Group on Indigenous Populations [...]”

1. Decides to request the Office of the High Commissioner on Human Rights to convene an informal meeting in Geneva open to the participation of states, indigenous peoples and other stakeholders preceding the resumed December session of the Council to further discuss the most appropriate mechanisms to continue the work of the Working Group on Indigenous Populations.

* Non-member States of the Human Rights Council.
